SUSTAINABILITY

At our establishment, sustainability is at the heart of everything we do and every decision we make. Sustainable solutions are not purely relating to our ongoing efforts aimed at reducing our carbon footprint, but also at carefully considering the impact we have on people and societies affected throughout our supply chain.

That's why we've designed this drinks menu with care — choosing producers, ingredients, and methods that reduce environmental impact while supporting responsible farming and ethical supply chains. Look out for the green highlighted boxes throughout this menu to discover options with a lighter footprint, so you can enjoy great drinks while making a more sustainable choice.
